

VANESSA ALEXANDRA CANTA BIOGRAPHY:

Since childhood, she has cultivated a great passion and love for singing.

She began her experience in the church choir, then as a soprano in the choir of Maestro Piscopo in Naples.

Over the years he has had different experiences both in choral singing, but also with bands and numerous events, treating authors such as: Pino Daniele, Joan Baez, Eric Clapton, U2, Santana, Battisti, Pink Floyd, Zucchero, Giorgia, Barbara Streisand, Elisa, Laura Pausini, Gun's and Roses, Doors, Queen, Bach, Gospel, Lauryn Hill, Mary J. Blidge, Mariah Carey, Whitney Houston and many others.

Lover of singing at 360 degrees, experimenter and researcher of sound through the Si Music of Lugano, the Life Sound Institute and MAD3 of Zurich, in recent years also engaged in the dissemination and organization of musical projects for various bodies including: UNICEF, University, Sokka Gakkai International Institute.